ADER EXPRESS

ADER Express is the best solution for your most urgent and exclusive critical or express domestic and international transport requirements. ADER's Operations Department will provide the most effective solution for each particular case.

There are 3 types of EXPRESS service:

- ▶ Land. Your transport is carried by road in the shortest possible transit time. Graphic on-line monitoring on the ADER extranet lets you track your orders and monitor pick-up and delivery confirmations in real time on the European road map.
- ▶ Air. To reduce time to the minimum in critical situations, we offer an air-taxi or charter service as the quickest solution, gaining time over road transport.
- ▶ Hand Courier. Our most specialist Express service covers small items that require personal handling. A combination of the most direct land and air transport allows our staff to guard your goods until they are handed over to the consignee.

ADER DISTRIBUTION

A service designed for companies in the transport and distribution sectors and for logistics operators requiring to externalise or extend their transport or delivery services on a regular, occasional or seasonal basis.

To cover exclusive local or regional distribution routes, ADER Commercial Taxi offers a wide range of designated industrial vehicles with driver. Traffic specialists will work with you to establish times, routes and number of deliveries that provide the best solution to your requirements.
